

City of Chicago
Department of Environment
Organizational Chart
Commissioner's Office

Plans, develops and implements programs and policies to provide for regulatory oversight of Chicago utilities, energy efficiency and renewable energy programming, air quality monitoring and improvement, and sustainable business development. Seeks to catalyze private sector investment in sustainable building and business strategies.

Plans, develops and coordinates strategies to prevent pollution; enforce City's environmental protection laws. Provides field services for scheduled inspections and complaints; manage and administer environmental permits. Operate City's permanent Household Hazardous Waste Facility and neighborhood collection days.

Sets policy, plans and implements activities to protect, restore and enhance natural resources; clean up and green neighborhoods; develops and provide public education. Establishes policies and programs that conserve and enhance water quality in Chicago's rivers, lakes and groundwater systems. Implements ex-offender job training program.

Evaluates and remediates contaminated properties in support of redevelopment. Provides project management and environmental support. Manages the Shoreline Protection Project. Develops and implements programs to support the City's recycling and waste reduction initiatives. Permits waste management facilities. Performs NEPA Reviews for federally-funded programs.